In the afternoon of January 12 this year, amidst the cool and windy breeze in the bright and sunny Tagaytay, sudden darkness enveloped the city. It was mid-afternoon of that day that Taal volcano showed its might once again. Thick clouds coming from the volcano formed a pillar of smoke that later fell down as ashes over millions of houses. It was one of the darkest nights in the southern part of Luzon. This gave people a lot of fear and anxiety. Panic and despair were seen in the gloom of each town where electricity was out. Total lockdown and Alert level 4 were the talk of the town. Blank faces in disbelief and tears flowing expressed the immense grief of thousands. All were silent in the darkness of each night and vigilant for another eruption hoping that it would never come. Listening to each announcement and news report day after day, one could not help but ask: When will all these end? This question lingered in the hearts and minds of all those affected. They waited, hoping against hope, for them to get back to their houses thinking that there was at least some things that they could save to start over again with.

Darkness evokes anxiety and is often associated with despair and sadness. The experience of not knowing, of uncertainty aggravates such fear in each person’s heart. The experience of darkness brought about by the natural calamities such as the eruption of Taal volcano or other imminent dangers, and disasters both man-made and natural invites each of us to see beyond darkness’ gloom and despair or even death.

On this holy and blessed night, the church begins the liturgy in darkness. This time, amidst this experience of darkness, the Light brings about a lasting hope and immense joy in the hearts of all. The Light that pierces through the darkness calls each of us, telling us DO NOT BE AFRAID. This Light reminds us that darkness is not the last word, that despair is not the last option, and that death is not the end of all. The Light of Christ brings joy, hope, and ultimately life. He has conquered and put an end to the sting of death.

On this blessed night, we hear the song of exultation, calling all to rejoice, for the Lord is truly risen. We hear the readings recalling how God has always journeyed and saved His people. Amidst the darkness of sin, there is the light of forgiveness; there is hope of salvation. As the church lights are lit, we join the angels in heaven singing glory to God in the Highest. All these turn our mourning into dancing; all these dispel darkness, sadness, and, death. The liturgy and the celebrations become very full of life, vibrant, and radiant white like an immense light; flowers adorn the altar; linens are placed, and candles are all lit. Indeed, the message is clear: Christos anesti! Alithos anesti! Christ is risen! He is truly risen!

Let not the darkness of sin, of despair, and of death frighten us. We, who have been baptized into Christ, are sharers in His life, death, and resurrection. We are called to be collaborators in Christ’s mission. Do not be afraid! Share the Light of Christ! You are light! Shine brightly and joyfully that others too may be Lux in Domino (Light in the Lord for all).

— Buen Andrew Cruz, SSP
(The celebration begins in total darkness. All lights inside the church are put out. The "Lucernarium" can be celebrated but within the building of the Church. A simple fire is prepared where the celebration is to begin.)

PART I: THE SOLEMN BEGINNING OF THE VIGIL

Greeting
(The sign of the cross is made here.)

P — The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

All — And with your spirit.

P — Dear brethren (brothers and sisters), on this most sacred night, in which our Lord Jesus Christ passed over from death to life, the Church calls upon her sons and daughters, scattered throughout the world, to come together to watch and pray. If we keep the memorial of the Lord’s paschal solemnity in this way, listening to his word and celebrating his mysteries, then we shall have the sure hope of sharing his triumph over death and living with him in God.

Blessing of the Fire

C — The passage from death to life is dramatically signified by the light of fire piercing through the darkness of night. It is fitting that our liturgy first centers on the symbol of fire and light.

P — Let us pray. (Pause)

O God, who through your Son bestowed upon the faithful the fire of your glory, sanctify (†) this new fire, we pray, and grant that, by these paschal celebrations, we may be so inflamed with heavenly desires, that with minds made pure we may attain festivities of unending splendor.

Through Christ our Lord.

All — Amen.

Preparation of the Easter Candle

(After the new fire is blessed, the Easter candle is brought to the priest-celebrant.)

C — The Easter candle represents our risen Lord, who shines in the light and splendor of his resurrection. He, in the form of the giant candle, is the "new pillar of fire" leading the Church out of the bondage of sin into the promise of new life.

(With the stylus, the priest traces the symbols over the wax candle. He traces the Greek letter ALPHA above the cross, the letter OMEGA below, and the numerals of the current year between the arms of the cross. He says and traces:)

\[ \begin{array}{c}
\text{A} \\
\text{2} \quad \text{0} \\
\text{2} \quad \text{0} \\
\end{array} \]

P —

1. CHRIST YESTERDAY AND TODAY (the vertical arm of the cross).
2. THE BEGINNING AND THE END (the horizontal arm).
3. THE ALPHA (alpha, above the cross).
4. AND THE OMEGA (omega, below the cross).
5. ALL TIME BELONGS TO HIM (the first numeral, in the upper left corner of the cross).
6. AND ALL THE AGES (the second numeral, in the upper right corner).
7. TO HIM BE GLORY AND POWER (the third numeral, in the lower left corner).
8. THROUGH EVERY AGE AND FOR EVER. AMEN (the last numeral, in the lower right corner).

(When the cross and other marks have been made, the priest may insert five grains of incense in the candle. He does this in the form of a cross, saying:)

1. P — (1) By his holy
2. and glorious wounds,
3. may Christ the Lord
4. guard us
5. and protect us. Amen.

(The priest lights the candle from the new fire.)

P — May the light of Christ rising in glory dispel the darkness of our hearts and minds.

Simple Procession

(The Priest or a deacon, in the middle of the sanctuary or in front of the altar, raising up the candle, sings:)

P — THE LIGHT OF CHRIST.

All — Thanks be to God.

(The said acclamation is done only once since there is no procession of the paschal candle.

The paschal candle is then placed on a large candlestand prepared next to the ambo or in the middle of the sanctuary.

And lights are lit throughout the church, except for the altar candles.

The priest and other ministers proceed to the altar. If the priest celebrant will not sing the Exsultet, he will proceed to the chair, while the minister assigned to do the Easter Proclamation carries the Easter candle to its place. He then moves to the lectern from where he proclaims the Exsultet.)

Easter Proclamation (Exsultet) (Short Form)

P — Exult, let them exult, the hosts of heaven, exult, let Angel ministers of God exult, let the trumpet of salvation sound aloud our mighty King’s triumph! Be glad, let earth be glad, as glory floods her, ablaze with light from her eternal King, let all corners of the earth be glad, knowing an end to gloom and darkness. Rejoice, let Mother Church also rejoice, arrayed with the lighting of his glory, let this holy building shake with joy, filled with the mighty voices of the peoples.

P — THE Lord be with you.

All — And with your spirit.

P — Lift up your hearts.

All — We lift them up to the Lord.

P — Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All — It is right and just.

P — It is truly right and just, with ardent love of mind and heart and with devoted service of our voice, to acclaim our God invisible, the almighty Father, and Jesus Christ, our Lord, his Son, his Only Begotten.
Who for our sake paid Adam's debt to the eternal Father, and, pouring out his own dear Blood, wiped clean the record of our ancient sinfulness.

These then are the feasts of Passover, in which is slain the Lamb, the one true Lamb, whose Blood anoints the doorposts of believers.

This is the night, when once you led our forebears, Israel's children, from slavery in Egypt and made them pass dry-shod through the Red Sea.

This is the night that with a pillar of fire banished the darkness of sin.

This is the night that which even now, throughout the world, sets Christian believers apart from worldly vices and from the gloom of sin, leading them to grace and joining them to his holy ones.

This is the night, when Christ broke the prison-bars of death and rose victorious from the underworld.

O wonder of your humble care for us! O love, O charity beyond all telling, to ransom a slave you gave away your Son!

O truly necessary sin of Adam, destroyed completely by the Death of Christ!

O happy fault that earned so great, so glorious a Redeemer! The sanctifying power of this night dispels wickedness, washes faults away, restores innocence to the fallen, and joy to mourners.

O truly blessed night, when things of heaven are wed to those of earth and divine to the human.

On this, your night of grace, O holy Father, accept this candle, a solemn offering, the work of bees and of your servants’ hands, an evening sacrifice of praise, this gift from your most holy Church.

Therefore, O Lord, we pray you that this candle, hallowed to the honor of your name, may persevere undimmed, to overcome the darkness of this night. Receive it as a pleasing fragrance, and let it mingle with the lights of heaven. May this flame be found still burning by the Morning Star: the one Morning Star who never sets, Christ your Son, who, coming back from death’s domain, has shed his peaceful light on humanity, and lives and reigns for ever and ever.

All — Amen.

PART II: THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

P — Dear brethren (brothers and sisters), now that we have begun our solemn Vigil, let us listen with quiet hearts to the Word of God. Let us meditate on how God in times past saved his people and in these, the last days, has sent us his Son as our Redeemer. Let us pray that our God may complete this paschal work of salvation by the fullness of redemption.

C — Please put out your candles and be seated.

Responsorial Psalm I (Ps 104)

1. Bless the Lord, O my soul!/ O Lord, my God, you are great indeed! You are clothed with majesty and glory;/ robed in light as with a cloak. (R)

2. You fixed the earth upon its foundation;/ not to be moved forever;/ with the ocean, as with a garment, you covered it;/ above the mountains the waters stood. (R)

3. You send forth springs into the watercourses/ that wind among the mountains./ Beside them the birds of heaven dwell;/ from among the branches they send forth their song. (R)

4. You water the mountains from your palace;/ the earth is replete with the fruit of your works./ You raise grass for the cattle;/ and vegetation for man's use;/ Producing bread from the earth. (R)

5. How manifold are your works, O Lord! In wisdom you have wrought them all—the earth is full of your creatures./ Bless the Lord, O my soul! (R)

Prayer (Stand)

P — Let us pray. (Pause)

Almighty ever-living God, who are wonderful in the ordering of all your works, may those you have redeemed understand that there exists nothing more marvelous than the world’s creation in the beginning except that, at the end of the ages, Christ our Passover has been sacrificed.

Who lives and reigns for ever and ever.

All — Amen.

Reading II (Short Form)

(Gen 22:1–2, 9, 10–13, 15–18) (Sit)

God tests the faith of Abraham. God asks him to sacrifice his son Isaac, the beloved son for whom he had prayed. Yet because of his faithfulness to God, Abraham is ready to give him up.

A reading from the Book of Genesis

(If dramatized, N — Narrator, Abraham; G — God.)

N — God put Abraham to the test. He called to him:

G — Abraham!

N — Here I am!

N — He answered. Then God said:

G — Take your son Isaac, your only one, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah. There you shall offer him up as a holocaust on a height that I will point out to you.

N — When they came to the place of which God had told him, Abraham built an altar there and arranged the wood on it. Then he reached out and took the knife to slaughter his son. But the Lord’s messenger called to him from heaven:

G — Abraham, Abraham!

N — Here I am.

G — Do not lay your hand on the boy. Do not do the least thing to him. I know now how devoted you are to God, since you did not withhold from me your own beloved son.

N — As Abraham looked about, he spied a ram caught by its horns in the thicket. So he went and took the ram and offered it up as a holocaust in place of his son.

Again the Lord’s messenger called to Abraham from heaven and said:

G — I swear by myself, declares the Lord, that because you acted as you did in not withholding from me your beloved son, I will bless you abundantly and make your descendants as countless as the stars of the sky and the sands of the seashore; your descendants shall take possession of the gates of their enemies, and in your descendants all the nations of the earth shall find blessing—all this because you obeyed my command.

— The word of the Lord.

All — Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm II (Ps 16)

R — You are my inheritance, O Lord.

E.C. Marfori

You are my inheritance, O Lord.

1. O Lord, my allotted portion and my cup,/ you it is who hold fast my lot./ I set the Lord ever before me;/ with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed. (R)

2. Therefore my heart is glad and my soul rejoices;/ my body, too, abides in confidence;/ because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld;/ nor will you suffer your faithful one to undergo corruption. (R)

3. You will show me the path to life;/ fullness of joys in your presence;/ the delights at your right hand forever. (R)

Prayer (Stand)

P — Let us pray. (Pause)

O God, supreme Father of the faithful, who increase the children of your promise by pouring out the grace of adoption throughout the whole world and who through the Paschal Mystery make your servant Abraham father of nations, as once you swore, grant, we pray, that your peoples may enter worthily into the grace to which you call them.

Through Christ our Lord.

All — Amen.

Reading III (Ex 14:15—15:1) (Sit)

The Israelites, the people of God, escape from a life of slavery in Egypt and are pursued by the Egyptians. God allows his people to go through the sea but drowns the enemy in it. This salvation by the waters of the sea recalls the waters of baptism by which we pass from the slavery of sin into a life of grace and freedom as children of God.

A reading from the Book of Exodus

(If dramatized, N — Narrator; G — God)

N — The Lord said to Moses:

G — Why are you crying out to me? Tell the Israelites to go forward. And you, lift up your staff and, with hand outstretched over the sea, split the sea in two, that the Israelites may pass through it on dry land. But I will make the Egyptians so obstinate that they will go in after them. Then I will receive glory through Pharaoh and all his army, his chariots and charioters. The Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I receive glory through Pharaoh and his chariots and charioters.

N — The angel of God, who had been leading Israel’s camp, now moved and went around behind them. The column of cloud also, leaving the front, took up its place behind them, so that it came between the camp of the Egyptians and that of Israel. But the cloud now became dark, and thus the night passed without the rival camps coming any closer together all night long. Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the Lord swept the sea with a strong east wind throughout the night and so turned it into dry land. When the water was thus divided, the Israelites marched into the midst of the sea on dry land, with the water like a wall to their right and to their left.

The Egyptians followed in pursuit; all Pharaoh’s horses and chariots and charioters went after them right into the midst of the sea. In the night watch just before dawn the Lord cast through the column of the fiery cloud upon the Egyptian force a glance that threw it into a panic; and so he clogged their chariot wheels that they could hardly drive. With that the Egyptians sounded the retreat before Israel, because the Lord was fighting for them against the Egyptians.
Then the Lord told Moses:

G — Stretch out your hand over the sea, that the water may flow back upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots and their charioteers.

N — So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and at dawn the sea flowed back to its normal depth. The Egyptians were fleeing head on toward the sea, when the Lord hurled them into its midst. As the water flowed back, it covered the chariots and the charioteers of Pharaoh’s whole army which had followed the Israelites into the sea. Not a single one of them escaped. But the Israelites had marched on dry land through the midst of the sea, with the water like a wall to their right and to their left. Thus the Lord saved Israel on that day from the power of the Egyptians. When Israel saw the Egyptians lying dead on the seashore, they feared the Lord, and believed in him and in his servant Moses.

Then Moses and the Israelites sang this song to the Lord: I will sing to the Lord, for he is gloriously triumphant; horse and chariot he has cast into the sea. But the Lord showed against the Egyptians, they feared the Lord, and believed in him and in his servant Moses. Through Christ our Lord.

— The word of the Lord.
All — Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm III (Ex 15)

R — Let us sing to the Lord; he has covered himself in glory.

E.C. Marfori

C C/E F Dm

Let us sing to the Lord; he has covered himself in glory.

1. I will sing to the Lord, for he is gloriously triumphant; horse and chariot he has cast into the sea. My strength and my courage is the Lord; and he has been my savior. He is my God, I praise him; the God of my father, I extol him. (R)

2. The Lord is a warrior; Lord is his name! Pharaoh’s chariots and army he hurled into the sea; the elite of his officers were submerged in the Red Sea. (R)

3. The flood waters covered them; they sank into the depths like a stone. Your right hand, O Lord, magnificent in power; your right hand, O Lord, has shattered the enemy. (R)

4. You brought in the people you redeemed/ and planted them on the mountain of your inheritance—/ the place where you made your seat, O Lord, the sanctuary, Lord, which your hands established./ The Lord shall reign for ever and ever. (R)

Prayer (Stand)

P — Let us pray. (Pause)

O God, whose ancient wonders remain undimmed in splendor even in our day, for what you once bestowed on a single people, freeing them from Pharaoh’s persecution by the power of your right hand, now you bring about as the salvation of the nations through the waters of rebirth, grant, we pray, that all the world may become children of Abraham and inherit the dignity of Israel’s birthright.

Through Christ our Lord.

All — Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm IV (Ps 30)

R — I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

E.C. Marfori

C C/E F

I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

1. I will extol you, O Lord, for you drew me clear/ and did not let my enemies rejoice over me. O Lord, you brought me up from the netherworld; you preserved me from among those going down into the pit. (R)

2. Sing praise to the Lord, you faithful ones,/ and give thanks to his holy name. For his anger lasts but a moment;/ a lifetime, his good will. At nightfall, weeping enters in;/ but with the dawn, rejoicing. (R)

3. Hear, O Lord, and have pity on me; O Lord, be my helper. You changed my mourning into dancing;/ O Lord, my God, forever will I give you thanks. (R)

Prayer (Stand)

P — Let us pray. (Pause)

Almighty ever-living God, surpass, for the honor of your name, what you pledged to the Patriarchs by reason of their faith, and through sacred adoption increase the children of your promise, so that what the Saints of old never doubted would come to pass your Church may now see in great part fulfilled.
Through Christ our Lord.
All — Amen.

Reading V (Is 55:1-11) (Sit)

The Lord invites his people to come to him that they may have life. Eternal life is given through Jesus' victory over death.

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

THUS SAYS the Lord: All you who are thirsty, come to the water! You who have no money, come, receive grain and eat; come, without paying and without cost, drink wine and milk! Why spend your money for what is not bread, your wages for what fails to satisfy? Heed me, and you shall eat well, you shall delight in rich fare. Come to me needfully, listen, that you may have life. I will renew with you the everlasting covenant, the benefits assured to David. As I made him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander of nations, so shall you summon a nation you knew not, and nations that knew you not shall run to you, because of the Lord, your God, the Holy One of Israel, who has glorified you.

Seek the Lord while he may be found, call him while he is near. Let the scoundrel forsake their way, and the wicked man their thoughts; let him turn to the Lord for mercy; to our God, who is generous in forgiving. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the Lord. As high as the heavens are above the earth, so high are my ways above your ways and my thoughts above your thoughts.

For just as from the heavens the rain and snow come down and do not return there till they have watered the earth, making it fertile and fruitful, giving seed to the one who sows and bread to the one who eats, so shall my word be that goes forth from my mouth; my word shall not return to me void, but shall do my will, achieving the end for which I sent it.

— The word of the Lord.
All — Thanks be to God.

Respansorial Psalm V (Is 12)

R — You will draw water joyfully from the springs of salvation.

E.C. Marfori

1. God indeed is my savior;/ I am confident and unafraid./ My strength and my courage is the Lord, and he has been my savior./ With joy you will draw water/ at the fountain of salvation. (R)

2. Give thanks to the Lord, acclaim his name;/ among the nations make known his deeds,/ proclaim how exalted is his name. (R)

3. Sing praise to the Lord for his glorious achievement;/ let this be known throughout all the earth./ Shout with exaltation, O city of Zion, for great in your midst/ is the Holy One of Israel! (R)

Prayer (Stand)

P — Let us pray. (Pause)

Almighty ever-living God, sole hope of the world, who by the preaching of your Prophets unveiled the mysteries of this present age, graciously increase the longing of your people, for only at the prompting of your grace do the faithful progress in any kind of virtue.

Through Christ our Lord.
All — Amen.

Gloria

(The altar candles are lit, the celebrant intones the "Gloria," which is taken up by all present. The church bells are rung and all church lights are put on.)

All — Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, Ó God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, take you away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Collect

P — Let us pray. (Pause)

O God, who make this most sacred night radiant with the glory of the Lord's Resurrection, stir up in your Church a spirit of adoption, so that, renewed in body and mind, we may render you undivided service.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All — Amen.

Epistle (Rom 6:3-11) (Sit)

Paul encourages the Christians, who were baptized into Christ, to die to their old sinful selves and to rise to a new life in him.

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

BROTHERS and sisters:

Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead, we too might live in newness of life.

For if we have grown into union with him through a death like his, we shall also be united with him in the resurrection. We know that our old self was crucified with him, so that we might no longer be in slavery to sin. For a dead person has been absorbed from sin. If, then, we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him. We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more; death no longer has power over him. As to his death, he died to sin once and for all; as to his life, he lives for God. Consequently, you too must think of yourselves as being dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus.

— The word of the Lord.
All — Thanks to God.

Gospel (Mt 28:1–10) (Candles are not carried, but only incense.)
P — The Lord be with you.
All — And with your spirit.
P — A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.
All — Glory to you, O Lord.

AFTER THE SABBATH, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the tomb. And behold, there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, approached, rolled back the stone, and sat upon it. His appearance was like lightning and his clothing was white as snow. The guards were shaken with fear of him and became like dead men. Then the angel said to the women in reply, “Do not be afraid! I know that you are seeking Jesus the crucified. He is not here, for he has been raised just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples, ‘He has been raised from the dead, and he is going before you to Galilee; there you will see him.’ Behold I have told you.” Then they went away quickly from the tomb, fearful yet overjoyed, and ran to announce this to his disciples. And behold, Jesus met them on their way and greeted them. They approached, embraced his feet, and did him homage. Then Jesus said to them, “Do not be afraid. Go tell my brothers to go to Galilee, and there they will see me.”

Baptism of Candidates (Refer to the Sacramentary)

Blessing of Water (Stand) (If no one present is to be baptized if no one present is to be baptized, the priest introduces the faithful and the font is not to be blessed, (Stand) (Pause) (Candles are lit.)
P — Dear brethren (brothers and sisters), through the Paschal Mystery we have been buried with Christ in Baptism, so that we may walk with him in newness of life. And so, now that our Lenten observance is concluded, let us renew the promises of Holy Baptism, by which we once renounced Satan and his works and promised to serve God in the holy Catholic Church. And so I ask you:
P — Do you renounce sin, so as to live in the freedom of the children of God?
All — I do.
P — Do you renounce the lure of evil, so that sin may have no mastery over you?
All — I do.
P — Do you believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth?
All — I do.
P — Do you believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was born of the Virgin Mary, suffered death and was buried, rose again from the dead and was seen to be alive forever after?
All — I do.
P — Do you believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting?
All — I do.
P — And may almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us new birth by water and the Holy Spirit and bestowed on us forgiveness of our sins, keep us by his grace, in Christ Jesus our Lord, for eternal life.

Christ our Passover has been sacrificed; therefore let us keep the feast with the unleavened bread of purity and truth, alleluia.

Pour out on us, O Lord, the Spirit of your love, and in your kindness make those you have nourished by this paschal Sacrament one in mind and heart.
Through Christ our Lord.
All — Amen.

THE CONCLUDING RITES

All — Amen.
P — Now that the days of the Lord’s Passion have drawn to a close, may you who celebrate the gladness of the Paschal Feast come with Christ’s help, and exulting in spirit, to those feasts that are celebrated in eternal joy.
All — Amen.
P — And may the blessing of almighty God, the Father, and the Son, (+) and the Holy Spirit, come down on you and remain with you for ever.
